

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is Online Advisors Inc?

Online Advisors Inc. is a subsidiary of Niemann Capital Management, Inc. It is a company that has been created specifically for technology development and upgrades.

2. How will performance and reporting change?

Though the technology and online presentation may be different looking and more efficient, Niemann analytics and methodology will not change at all.

3. I am a client and my password does not work or I have forgotten my password.

Contact your administrator (Financial Advisor) so that he or she may assign you a new password.

4. Will I still receive a quarterly review of my accounts?

Yes, both clients and advisors will continue to receive their respective quarterly reviews (hard copy) as before. Though, we eventually plan to provide with a choice of receiving electronic updates.

5. I am a financial advisor and my password does not work or I have forgotten my password.

Contact the Associate Entity Admin within your organization for a temporary password.

6. Where may I find Niemann Quarterly Performance Information?

Quarterly returns of all Niemann Strategies versus their respective custom benchmarks and major market indices may still be easily found at www.ncm.net. Just go to the Performance tab and click. You may link directly there, or even through your OnlineAdvisors view clicking where it says Niemann Capital on the assets page view.